

BRITISH DEEPEN THE BIG DENTS IN GERMAN LINE

Having Broken the Second Line Defense of Teutons, Gen. Haig Continues to Press On.

French on the Right Flank Are Comparatively Inactive.

Hard Fighting Between Russians and Turks Is Feature in Eastern Theater of War.

(Associated Press Cable)
LONDON, JULY 15. — BRITISH TROOPS AND BRITISH INFANTRY CONTINUE TO DEEPEN THE BIG DENTS IN THE GERMAN LINES NORTH OF THE SOMME.

AFTER FORCING THE SECOND LINE ALONG A FOUR MILE FRONT GENERAL HAIG'S FORCES CONTINUED THE ATTACK TODAY.

As a result, the Germans at one point have been pushed back to their third line of defense.

This marks a British advance of four miles from the original German lines as they existed at the beginning of the offensive on July 1. The force of the renewed British drive is shown not only in the ground gained, but in the number of prisoners captured.

London reports the taking of more than 2,000 Germans within the past 24 hours. The total since the start of the offensive is now in excess of 10,000.

The French, on their right flank, are remaining comparatively inactive, having already achieved their initial goal.

They are busy at Verdun, however, where they have repulsed an attack near the Avocourt redoubt, on the extreme left of the Verdun front, while their artillery is actively replying to bombardments by the German Prince's guns on the east bank of the Meuse.

At Apremont, attempted German attacks were broken up by the French fire.

Hard fighting continues between Russians and Turks in Turkish Armenia, where the Russians are pushing westward from Mamakhatua. The result of the battle is so far inconclusive.

COOLER WEATHER FAILS TO RELIEVE FROM EPIDEMIC

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, July 15.—A marked drop in temperature failed today to reduce the fatalities and development of the epidemic of infantile paralysis.

During the last 24 hours there have been 27 deaths and 144 new cases reported.

To control the epidemic, which is being felt in all parts of the country, the Rockefeller Foundation today donated the sum of $50,000 to those in charge of the fight.

ORPET'S FATE WITH JURORS

Young Collegian, Charged With Murder, Will Soon Learn His Fate

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Waukegan, Ill., July 15. — The case of Will H. Orpet, the University of Wisconsin student charged with the murder of Marian Lambert was given to the jury this afternoon.

Counsel for the defendant said that Judge Donnelly's instructions to the jury were tantamount to a command to acquit.

The audience today was composed mostly of women and packed the court room when the jury heard the last argument in the famous case.

Orpet seemed more cheerful at the prospect of the ending of the period of suspense, as he sat with his mother and father and his counsel.

Attorney David R. Joslyn, who began the closing arguments for the State, asked the jury to disregard the testimony of the State expert, Dr. W. G. McNally, who, after testifying for the State that Marian died of liquid poisoning, appeared for the defense and reversed his evidence.

"I am going to ask you gentlemen to ignore the testimony of hired experts from Chicago and use your own common sense," said Mr. Joslyn.

Brusiloff the Russians seem to have found a strategist and tactician of the highest order. His ability is acknowledged freely by his Teutonic opponents, who confess themselves amazed by the magnitude and persistence of the Russian attacks.

COMMISSION MAY SETTLE IT

United States and Mexico May Submit Differences to Joint Commission.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 15. — Solution of difficulties between the United States and Mexico appeared today to tend more and more toward settlement through an international joint commission.

Informal conferences between Acting Secretary Polk and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate, it was indicated, were developing questions for probable submission to such a body.

General Carranza is said to approve the commission plan of settling differences, as provided in the treaty of 1848, and State Department officials are believed to be willing to accede to such a course.

President Wilson is not dissatisfied with the direction negotiations are taking.

Instructions have been issued to the commissary department to provide today's rations for each man. Loading of supplies on railroad cars will begin at three o'clock this afternoon.

Colonel Vollrath has been instructed that all transportation for the Eighth will be available by 5 o'clock.

The commander refused to disclose to what point on the border the Eighth will be sent.

However it was rumored that El Paso or San Antonio will be the point.

The Eighth Regiment will be the first unit of the Ohio Guard to go south; others are expected to follow in quick order.

Major Robert W. Mearns, senior Federal mustering officer, today ordered the Ohio cavalry squadron to get ready to move.

However, no cars have been ordered yet for the cavalry, and it may be two or three days before they get away.

REALIGNMENT OF TROOPS

Big Bend Country to Be Well Patrolled By Uncle Sam's Boys.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Boquillas, Texas, July 15.—Re-alignment of troops for the protection of the border against bandit raids in the Big Bend country began today with the arrival of a portion of the Pennsylvania National Guard and the dispatch of a troop of Cavalry to reinforce troops at Glenn Springs.

Troops are being rushed from Alpine and Marfa to the border, as a result of repeated warnings that bandits are advancing to the Rio Grande to raid this exposed portion of Texas.

Ranchers reported that Mexicans in the district across the river are near starvation and that they will soon be forced to raid to the American side to get food.

Five or six hundred Carranza soldiers are reported in the vicinity.

The bandit band is estimated at about 1,000 men.

The men were captured at San Ygnacio, Texas, June 15, after a brush between their party and the Fourteenth Cavalry.

DAY BY DAY IN CAMP WILLIS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Willis, Columbus, O., July 15.—The Associated Press is the only press association having an office in headquarters row with the officers at Camp Willis.
The Associated Press correspondent at camp also has the unique distinction of being the only newspaper man to spend his entire time at the camp. His living tent and office is located but a few feet from the tent of General William V. McMaken, camp commander.

"The Willis Guards" is the designation members of Company "G" Second Regiment, from Ada, have given themselves. Governor Willis's home is at Ada.

Harry Morgan, 26, of Cincinnati and Louis Dillon of Philadelphia, are enlisted with Company "C", engineers, after having deserted from Canadian overseas expeditionary forces and reached the United States by scaling the superstructure of an international railroad bridge near Niagara Fall, N. Y.

There is but one place at Camp Willis where such luxuries as laundry bags, ebony and silver-mounted toilet sets, automobiles and tent rugs are to be found. It is in the quarters of the cavalry.

A number of the men of Troop "A", enlisted from prominent Cleveland families, brought their own automobiles to camp and their outfitings throughout correspond with this degree of ease and comfort. Some members of Troop "B" of Columbus also brought their machines to camp.

Orderly Harry Burnes, son of a wealthy Bridgeport family enlisted in Troop "B", does his errands for the most part in his own automobile.

The machine gun company of the Second Regiment, from Ada, is said to have the largest student membership of any of the guard organizations in camp, 46 of its 58 men

That it is possible to be so fatigued that one does not care where he lies was demonstrated in the camp of Troop "B" of Columbus, according to members of that "outfit."

Charles Koehl, quartermaster sergeant of the troop, was picked to be the victim of the jokers of the company. Rocks and gravel were placed in his bunk, but when Koehl "turned in" from picket duty, he was so tired he never noticed the stones and slept soundly until morning.

Initiation into membership in Troop "B", Columbus, is ceremony regarded with some trepidation by "rookies." New recruits in this command are made fast with a lariat and dragged a couple of hundred feet about the camp by eight or ten troopers, given an "army ride" on a rail or tossed into the air and caught a number of times on an army blanket.

A bulldog, guardsmen declared, is not such an undesirable bed-fellow especially on a cool night, but C. G. Kalb of Troop "B", Columbus, says they are not so friendly when you try to climb into their bunks unannounced.

Kalb according to his mess mates, got to camp a few minutes after "taps" one night. By careful maneuvering he got past the guard line and crawled silently into his tent, stepping over forms of his sleeping comrades.

He was getting along splendidly and was congratulating himself on his success in being undiscovered when, as he shoved a foot down under his blanket there was a loud "woof" and Trooper the troop's mascot, had him by the leg. In a trice, every man in the tent was awake.

A few days assignment to the kitchen police was Kalb's penalty for getting into camp late.

A band of Gypsies located near Camp Willis is reaping a harvest of small change from guardsmen who have their fortunes told. Officers say that an unusually large number of the "boys" go to the Gypsies to learn whether their commands will ever get to the border, whether they will return home unwounded and whether the girl they left behind will remain true.

"POP" GEERS INJURED

Gnarled and wrinkled and bent with the long years of service in the sulky, the veteran driver Edward F. Geers, had entered another formidable stable in the Grand Circuit campaign which opens at North Randall July 17.

One of the accomplishments the famous southern driver hoped to put over this season was to drive a horse in two minutes. He has driven The Harvester, his fastest trotter, in 2:01, which is the world's record for a stallion of that gait. He also has driven the pacers Ess H. Kay and Napoleon Direct in 2:00 3/4. The big question this year was, could he clip three-quarters of a second from the record of Napoleon Direct?

He was born at Lebanon, Wilson County, Tenn., January 25, 1851. There are few, if any, people connected with the harness turf that have not read about or had the pleasure of seeing "Pop" Geers, as the grand old man of the turf is more familiarly known by the harness horse fans.

The following table includes the amount of money won by horses that he drove himself during his campaigns from 1890 to 1915, and if the amounts won by horses that were in his stable but were driven by other trainers during that period were included the total would be swelled considerably:

BIG FIRE

New York, July 15.—One man was killed and great loss was caused by a fire which swept the state arsenal in this city. The dead man was Thomas McNally, a state chauffeur, who died from burns. Messrs. J. W. Duffee & Co., City,

Gentlemen: About two months ago we discovered a big nest of ants in our lawn and attempted to get rid of them, using gasoline, turpentine, lime, etc., in turn. All of these failed to accomplish the desired result.

Borrowing Brains and Buying Power

WHEN you buy a season ticket to the Chautauqua you are borrowing brains and buying power. You are investing two dollars in what has cost the men and women who bring it to you lifetimes of endeavor.

For two dollars you get the product of the organizing genius of Fortune Gallo, who brings to the Chautauqua the entire San Carlo Grand Opera Company, the building of which has been his life's work. You hear these famous song birds in the programs on which they have built their fame. You get the product of the musical studies to which these great musical artists have devoted their lives.

For two dollars you get the musical artistry of many others — the Metropolitan Grand Quartet, called the best in America—The Daveny Quintet, established in musical worth—White's Review Company in popular and pleasing program—the Florentines, novelty musicians of rare renown—Colangelo's Musicians extraordinary—the Boston Entertainers.

For two dollars you get the entertainment artistry of Germain, the master magician; of Sidney Landon, the characterist—to the development of whose programs years have been given.

For two dollars you get the use of the brain of Glenn Frank, who has devoured libraries that you may profit; the inspiration of J. Whitcomb Brounger, who has seen life that he may interpret it to you; the research of years which Ida Tarbell has made; the knowledge of youth and its training gleaned by Medbury in a lifetime of usefulness; the entertainment, the information, the joy of contact with the minds of Evans, of Ray, of Wilkinson and others.

It would take you months to absorb the information you'll get in a week at the Chautauqua; it would take a visit to the metropolitan centers to get the music; it would take more than the price of the season ticket to enjoy the entertainment.

And it is all yours for two dollars. For fourteen cents a session (for your season ticket is good for fourteen sessions of the Chautauqua) you can borrow master brains and buy power.

Suspicious and Fears

Last Thursday evening the police made another raid, capturing and taking into custody a quartette of alleged vendors of intoxicating liquors.

As is usually the case the accused parties are not very powerful "dealers." No one ever suspicioned them of handling very large quantities of the contraband goods.

If guilty as charged they should be punished—there is no argument about that, but there are, unless the very pronounced suspicions, which a great many of our citizens hold, are entirely without foundation, some dealers in intoxicants operating on a very much more pretentious scale, doing a vast amount more harm and who are very much more of a menace to the community than the petty violators who are periodically gathered in by the police drag net.

Of course the police should know better than any other citizens as to law violations and the fact that some of the recognized heavier liquor dealers escape arrest is an evidence that no violations on the larger scale exist. Notwithstanding that presumption, however, there are hundreds of Washington people who are firmly convinced that there is "boot-legging" on a pretentious scale going on within the limits of the city.

They feel that unless some radical move is made to break up the favorite congregating an awful tragedy will result.

More Visitors From the Sea

The accounts of the appearance of a large "man eating" shark on the New Jersey coast Tuesday, the monster from the sea traveling up the streams which flow to the coast, a distance in some instances, of ten miles, rival the tales of the appearance of the "monster sea serpent," off the Atlantic coast in 1851.

As to the earlier appearance of a strange monster from the deep the public was compelled to rely upon the statements of navigators and fishermen who had seen at a distance the great green monster winding its sinewy lengths through and over the great billows of the ocean.

The sea serpent of the fifties was seen only by one or two persons at a time and left behind no positive evidence of its visit. Naturally there were people in those days, history tells us, who doubted the statements as to the size, color and appearance of the serpent and some pessimists were uncharitable enough to insist that no one had ever actually seen the sea serpent. Well organized searching parties made up of men of science patrolled the coasts for months but the deep sea guest was never sighted by them.

In the case Tuesday a number of trustworthy "level headed" folks saw the great shark coming into Mateawan Creek from the sea. Motor boat captains went ahead of the incoming monster to warn bathers some of whom were unable and some, unbelieving, refused, to hurry to a place of safety on the shore and, as a consequence, the shark left horribly conclusive evidence of his visit to the New Jersey coast streams.

These are strange times on land and sea, times when living things seem to be breaking loose from their accustomed bearings.

The Atlantic ocean has brought to the American shores the first under water man-made creation—the German submarine merchantman—and within two days furnishes safe passage for a man eating shark, into strange inland waters.

We have long realized that we didn't know "what was under the ground until we dug for it;" now we must acknowledge that under the surface of the sea strange creatures move about and new habitations are being scouted out.

Perhaps the shark gave chase to the big sub boat or perhaps the mines and bombs and strange under sea craft of man's creation poaching upon the sharks' domain has sent them out "prospecting" for quiet homes.

Judge Clarke Named

On Friday President Wilson nominated Judge John H. Clarke for the position on the supreme court bench made vacant by the resignation of Justice Hughes. Once again the great progressive city on Lake Erie—Cleveland—has had one of its citizens elevated to an important post in the service of the nation.

With the selection of Newton D. Baker as Secretary of War and Judge Clarke as Justice of the Supreme Court, Cleveland has indeed been signally honored by the national administration.

Judge Clarke is a lawyer of recognized ability and while a democrat has not at all times been enthusiastically in accord with the party leaders. Judge Clarke has always been recognized as preferring more the conservative wing of the party though not an extremist in his preference.

Ambitious to be chosen United States Senator, Judge Clarke has been defeated by the electorate of the state largely because he was not in entire accord with the element in control of the party.

He will undoubtedly render great and honorable service on the supreme bench.

The nomination is a good one.

Poetry For Today

THE MEETING OF THE WATERS.

There is not in the wide world a valley so sweet
As the vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet;
Oh, the last rays of feeling and life must depart,
Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.

Yet it was not that nature had shed o'er the scene
Her purest of crystal and brightest of green;
'Twas not her soft magic of stream-let or hill,
Oh, no—it was something more exquisite still.

'Twas that friends, the beloved of my bosom, were near,
Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear,
And who felt that the best charms of nature improve,
When we see them reflected from looks that we love.

Sweet vale of Avoca! How calm could I rest
In thy bosom of shade, with the friends I love best,
Where the storms that we feel in this cold world should cease,
And our hearts, like thy waters, be mingled in peace.

—Thomas Moore.

AWFUL PROOF

(By "American Press")

Mattawan, N. J., July 15.—A shark measuring eight and a half feet in length was killed off Atlantic Highlands, and its body was taken to New York. It had been caught in the meshes of a fisherman's net and the killing of the giant fish was then an easy matter. The news of the killing of the shark lent new interest and activity to the work of attempting to clear the waters hereabouts of these monsters. Also by the discovery of the body of Lester Stillwell, the twelve-year-old lad who was dragged down on Wednesday afternoon. The force of shark fighters has gained hundreds of recruits.

Fire Chief Emmons exploded more than seventy-five tons of dynamite in the creek. Columns of water were thrown high in the air. But despite the explosions there was no sign of the shark.

BANDIT HAS 6,000 "TROOPS"

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., July 15.—A musician from Chihuahua brings a report to the border to the effect that Pancho Villa, in command of 6,000 men of the brigades of Canute Reyes and Calixto Contreras, fought a superior force of Carranzistas, led by officers of General Jacinto Trevino's division, southwest of Jimenez, for five consecutive days, and Villistas are now engaged with Carranza troops at Diaz, near Santa Rosalia.

"I will take Chihuahua in two months," is the frequent declaration of Villa, according to the musician. He says Villa is going about with a crutch and a cane, one of his legs being badly injured.

Trevino's troops drove the Villistas out of Jimenez after they had confiscated all available foodstuffs in that town. The bandman said there were 15,000 Carranzistas opposing Villa's men. He said that during the engagements around Jimenez two trainloads of dead and wounded Carranza soldiers were brought to Chihuahua.

The Mexican said that when he left Chihuahua fighting was reported still in progress and desertions of Trevino's men to Villa were going on. He asserted that the soldiers in the Chihuahua garrison are all for Villa and would like to see him take the city.

A body of Villistas raided Ojos Calientes, the hot springs settlement, two and one-half miles west of Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, early this week, confiscated provisions and pressed all the able bodied men they could find into service for Villa, according to the statement of the wife of a physician who reached El Paso from Mexico. The woman reported that the people of Santa Rosalia are Villa sympathizers.

Another passenger arriving from Santa Rosalia said Villa forces are recruiting rapidly and that practically every available man in central Chihuahua is joining Villa's standard.

CARRANZA'S TALK

(By American Press)

Mexico City, July 15.—General Carranza, in an interview here, said that the status of the negotiations with Washington was very satisfactory, as the result of the good will shown to each other by Mexico and the United States. "Thanks to this feeling of good will," the first chief continued, "we will be able to avoid war. War is something I do not desire, but if there were no other remedy for the situation I would enter upon it."

COLONEL HUBLER FILES COMPLAINT

(By American Press)

Columbus, July 15.—In written complaint to General William V. McMain, camp commander, Colonel Robert L. Hubler of Dayton expresses fear that Ohio soldiers at Camp Willis will suffer from ptomaine poisoning if the present quality of food continues to be served to them.

Colonel Hubler states in the letter that the soldiers have been served moldy bread, a poor quality of beans, some of which are "rotten," and an inferior grade of milk. He also registered a complaint with Governor Willis when the latter visited him in camp. The meat that has been served is excellent, it is said, and other victuals are of good quality except the bread, beans and milk.

Major A. W. Reynolds, in charge of the post commissary, said that the moldy bread had been sent from Toledo on a subcontract for a Columbus baking company, which was unable to supply the contract demand. He added that the contract has now expired and a new one awarded to a Columbus company.

Major Reynolds admitted that the beans are not "No. 1" quality, but said that none of the best beans are now in the market. He insisted, however, that the beans are entirely serviceable and wholesome.

Governor Willis said that he thinks the food situation will be straightened out quickly.

BRITISH SUCCESS ON SOMME

(By American Press)

London, July 15.—Important second positions of the Germans in the Somme have been captured by the British after a brief bombardment.

On a front of four miles the British have advanced to a depth of a mile and have held all positions gained in spite of violent counter attacks.

The strategic importance of the British successes is marked by the straightening of their line in conformity with that of the French, who had hitherto advanced at a much greater speed than their allies. The brevity of the preliminary bombardment, coupled with the statements of press correspondents at the front that the British losses were comparatively small, lend support to unofficial statements that the German second line was much less strongly fortified than their first defenses.

On the French portion of the Somme front no action of importance was recorded, but in the French official statement for Friday it was announced that the bombardment of German positions on the Belgian front and reached a point of the greatest intensity.

This announcement receives additional significance, as for more than a week the Belgians have reported a persistent and destructive bombardment directed at the German fortifications. These announcements were similar to those made by the British preceding the opening of their great offensive, and may possibly indicate that another big forward movement statement it was openly announced at the extreme western end of the battle line.

The only actions reported on the Verdun front were assaults made by the French. These assaults were noted in the German official statement, which made no claims of any German offensive action.

On the Russian front the great battle of Stokhod is still raging, with the issue remaining in the balance. The most important news from the Russian side is in regard to the operations in the Caucasus. Grand Duke Nicholas reports continuous and substantial successes against the Turks and apparently is launching another great offensive in the region of Erzerum and Balbut.

TWENTY-NINE MEMBERS OF COMPANY M REJECTED

Federal Examination Riddles the Ranks of Company M and Fourth Regiment, But Loss Is No Greater Than That of Other Companies, It Is Claimed—Boys Dismissed Return Home

The "losses" experienced by Company M as a result of the attack made upon the company by the federal examiners has riddled the ranks to the extent of twenty-nine members, including First Sergeant Pearl Smith, Sergeant Barten Vincent, the musician, Charles S. Paul, and even the cook, Strader Wilson.

Guy P. Smith, Charles Sollars, Ray Vance.

Out of a total of approximately 125 men the loss is lower than that suffered by some of the other companies with fewer men.

The reason for the dismissal was that the men were not up to the standard physically, required by the stringent rules of the regular army and the least physical defect was regarded as sufficient cause for dismissal from further service.

The total number of men lost by the Fourth Regiment as a result of the examinations reached around the 300 mark. The work of recruiting to fill up the vacancies is expected to be pushed during the next few days.

The members of Company M who were dismissed at the examination held Friday afternoon, are returning to their homes and to their work in this city and surrounding territory.

The entire Ohio Guard has been mustered into Federal service and it is expected that many of the troops will be sent to the border the coming week.

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT FINANCIAL SUCCESS

An attractive entertainment and social was enjoyed by a large number at Wesley Chapel Friday night. Miss Mary Edge was the instigator and successful promoter of the entertainment, which was well given and pleasingly varied.

Ten little girls of Miss Agnes Kerrigan's primary department at Sunnyside excellently trained by their teacher, gave songs and a taking "Grandmother's Drill," in which they were costumed as tiny grandmothers.

Miss Jean Hollingsworth sang a pretty solo; Mrs. Coffey accompanied and was given a generous encore.

Miss Marguerite Wilson was the evening's reader, and her natural impersonations and clever work delighted the audience.

A much appreciated number was the octette sung by Misses Wiatt, Dodds, Householder, Knisley, Church, Minshel, Elliott and Hyer. The singers were promptly recalled.

Two sparkling piano duets opened and closed the program, Misses Dorothy Wiatt and Norma Dodds opening the program and Misses Mary Edge and Opal Church closing it effectively.

The audience remained seated for light summer refreshments served by the refreshment committee; Mesdames Hughey, Norris and Ellison. Mrs. H. V. Rodgers, acting president of the Mite Society, had the affair under general management.

It was gratifying to the Chapel to learn that the entertainment cleared a sum more than sufficient to remodel the lighting system, the purpose for which given.

ENGINEER OF YARD ENGINE FEARS HOODOO

Believing Yard Engine Is Ill-Starred, Hobenbach Resigns and Returns to His Farm—Smash up in This City Friday Recalls Another Close Call.

Believing that the yard engine used by the B. & O. and C. H. & D. for switching purposes in connection with the union freight station here is hoodooed, Engineer Hobenbach has tendered his resignation and returns to his farm in Roas county, where he believes the dangers are less and where he expects to spend the remainder of his days.

Hobenbach's resignation comes as result of the smashup in this city Friday morning when passenger train No. 202 went through an open switch and smashed head-on into the yard engine, and later the engineer of the train, Frank Shobe, riding a strange engine, was killed in a wreck near Byers Station southeast of Chillum.

With the resignation of Hobenbach it develops that a short time ago a serious wreck was avoided by a hair's breadth when the switch engine barely got into the siding and switch closed as a passenger train, said to be breaking the city ordinance, dashed past.

With the actual smash-up and the fatal wreck occurring later in the day, when an engine pulling the same passenger train was turned over and Engineer Shobe roasted alive as he was plinned under the engine, the affair unnerved Hobenbach and he quit the railroading game.

SHERLOCK IS CAPTURED BY 14-YEAR BOY

"Mysterious Mr. Sherlock Holmes" Proves to Be the Genial County Auditor, Who Has Many Amusing Experiences—Little Frank Brown Lucky Boy.

Fourteen-year-old Frank Brown, son of Mrs. Hattie Brown, of High street, is the lucky person who succeeded in capturing the "Mysterious Mr. Sherlock Holmes," alias County Auditor Glenn M. Pine, who had great sport in eluding capture, but found it really much easier than he had anticipated.

The capture was made at 5:19 Friday evening while "Sherlock" was crossing the street from Christopher's Drug Store and after he had been all but captured a number of times. His captor took him in tow to the Palace Theater where later in the evening the $20 in cash was paid to the happy youngster who departed for home with a very light heart.

So carefully had the identity of Sherlock been guarded that no one suspected Mr. Pine of being the mysterious sleuth until late Friday evening. Mr. Pine had visited the various points announced, and in fact had visited them several times.

At Christopher's Drug Store at four o'clock he was approached by City Auditor McFadden, who gave the necessary spiel and had the proper credentials, but he failed to take hold of Sherlock as required.

At the Ellis Jewelry Store Sherlock had quite a chat with Rye Parvin, discussing fishing.

At the Flowers Bakery he found no cigars but plenty of fresh buns, and the clerk was unsuspecting.

At Bending's Pool Room and Restaurant he found Minor Crites too busy devouring a late lunch or early dinner to even suspect the proximity of Sherlock.

At Girard's store he told the clerk he desired some post cards, and that she might send them by Sherlock. She did not take the hint.

At H. C. Anthony's Tailor Shop he chatted a short time with E. J. Light.

At Wilkin's Clothing Store he tried on a palm beach coat and then after a stop at Gregg's shoe store, where he was accosted by Herman Price, salesman in the store, Sherlock went to Barnett's grocery, where he was accused of being Sherlock, but no proper attempt was made to catch him.

At Rodecker's News Stand he was informed by the clerk that she was sure he had been standing near Sherlock the previous day. Mr. Pine also was sure that he had.

After a chat with Mart DeWitt, who evidently was not looking for an easy $20, he continued on his journey until captured.

At the Palace Theater, Friday night, "Sherlock" was introduced and the award made to Frank Brown, the captor of great detectives.

The public is cordially invited.

ECLIPSE VIEWED BY MANY CITIZENS

The almost total eclipse of the moon—one of the best ever viewed by local citizens, was watched with a great deal of interest Friday night, both while the moon was passing into the shadow and while it was leaving the shadow.

The best view was obtained about 10:45, when the eclipse was at its best. The moon hung in the heavens as clear as crystal, and not a cloud appeared throughout the entire period to mar the beauty of the unusual spectacle.

FIREMAN LEWIS QUILTS TONIGHT

Driver of Huge Motor Fire Truck to Accept Job in Government Service and Leaves for Arizona First of the Week—Refusal to Increase Wage Brings on Grave Situation.

Fireman W. L. Lewis, driver of the motor fire truck and an expert mechanic, will quit his job tonight to accept a position in the Government service as driver of a truck on the Mexican border, and leaves Sunday for Springfield to report for duty Monday morning.

Mr. Lewis, who has been receiving $60 per month, sometime ago sought an increase to $75, inasmuch as he had taken the place of two men in the department and is unusually well qualified for motor truck driving. The increase was refused by council, and when he received an offer of $100 per month an all expenses for driving a truck in the government service, he took steps to accept.

He reports to the Kelly-Springfield Motor Truck Company and upon passing the necessary test, leaves Monday night with a shipment of trucks for "somewhere" in America, to take up his duties without further delay.

The resignation of Mr. Lewis leaves two men at the department, neither of whom claims to be a thorough mechanic. Chief Mayo can operate the truck, but the services of another man will be required at once to bring the department up to the standard.

YOUNGSTERS TAKE PLEASURE IN WORK

All of the large number of boys and girls who are earning their own chautauqua tickets are taking great pleasure in the work, and many and varied are the methods of earning the price of a ticket.

Little Miss Ramona Short earned her dollar helping her mother wash dishes, doing errands for the neighbors. She bought and paid for her ticket Wednesday and is proud of it.

Robert Bay, earned his dollar by feeding chickens and pigs while visiting in the country, and by selling peas and beans to a member of the school board.

Alice Elizabeth Ellis writes that she earned her ticket by making up beds, sweeping drive and pavement three times each week.

Warning!

JUST as the Klaxon warns PEDESTRIANS, we would warn MOTORISTS.

We would say—and as emphatically as the Klaxon says it—"LOOK OUT."

Look out for horns that LOOK like Klaxons but are NOT Klaxons.

The only way to be sure you are getting a genuine Klaxon—with the famous Klaxon note and the Klaxon guarantee of PERMANENT satisfaction is to find the Klaxon name-plate:—

—"the only sign of a perfect signal."

WE know auto horns. We have to. It's our business.

We know the stuff that goes into them; and the sound that comes out.

We know why the Klaxon is the most widely used auto horn in the world.

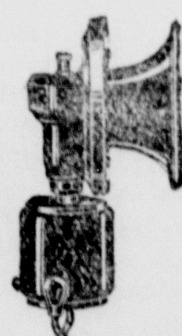

Because it is MADE right. Because it always WORKS. Because it is always HEARD. Because it LASTS FOREVER.

There is no signal that can compare with it in warning-power, carrying-power and dependability. Once let us put one on your car and you will never drive without it. It's the modern means of safe and satisfactory motoring.

WOULD SHUT OUT NEGROES

(By American Press)

Washington, July 15.—Addressing the senate on the Japanese problem in America, Senator Works declared that the issue could be solved only by keeping the Pacific ocean between peoples of the two nations.

Because of the essential racial differences, Senator Works asserted, there could be no racial toleration of the Japanese, because that inevitably would lead to race amalgamation, which was unthinkable. He argued that the time had come when the United States, as an act of self-preservation, should declare by statute its purpose "not to tolerate further race complications on our soil, by preventing immigration of all peoples not of the white race."

The California senator declared that relations between the United States and Japan were friendly, but insisted that Japan's "gentlemen's agreement" did not prevent Japanese from coming to America. "Nor does it meet the necessity," he added, "of excluding those who are here, or others who may come, from owning land in the states, a condition that is most objectionable. Neither does it meet the complications that is going to result from the incoming of 'picture brides,' of which there are already hundreds, perhaps thousands, in my state."

The senator continued: "If we had long ago enacted laws excluding everybody from the country who were not eligible to become citizens we would not have 70,000 Japanese in the United States, 55,000 of whom are in California. We have temporized and compromised our rights, which has brought about the present complications that may imperil our friendly relations with the Japanese nation."

"If war with Japan comes, what then? Have we prepared for it? Will we be prepared for it if the proposed program of military and naval expansion is carried out? No; not on the Pacific coast. To make the Pacific coast states secure, we must have two armies and two navies, one on each side of the sea coasts."

"I do not believe we are going to have war with Japan, but those who think so should see to it that the Pacific coast, which must bear the brunt of any fighting with that country, has a sufficient portion of the increased army and navy to protect it from attack."

NAVAL COLLIER IN BIG STORM

More Than 140 Persons, Including 60 Marines, on Board.

Charleston, S. C., July 15.—The big naval collier Hector, carrying 60 marines, in addition to her crew of 70 men and 12 officers, sank off Charleston, according to a report from Captain Hunt of the tug Vigilant, which tried to go to the Hector's assistance. He was unable to say whether those aboard escaped.

The steamer Alamo had been standing by the collier, having responded to her calls when she was disabled some miles off here in a hurricane. Static conditions were such that no wireless report could be obtained from the Alamo. The sea still was running high.

The Hector left Port Royal for Santo Domingo. She attempted to put into port here when the storm disabled her, but, according to Captain Hunt, went down about nine and a half miles from the Charleston lightship. Captain Hunt said part of the collier's superstructure remained above water. The Hector displaced 11,200 tons, was 384 feet long and was built at Sparrows Point, Md., in 1908.

A SCANDAL?

(By American Press)

Columbus, July 15.—Charles V. Williams, head of the state board's children welfare department, says that not only one but twenty children's homes in Ohio are under investigation by the state board of charities. He added that no more children will be admitted to a county home in southeastern Ohio, where physical torture and brutal punishment of child inmates has been charged against a former superintendent. Williams stood pat on his refusal to give the name of the superintendent under fire or the location of the institution in question. "The man has resigned," he said.

George E. Beasley, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Athens County Children's home, denied at Athens that he is guilty of charges now under investigation by the state.

THE EPIDEMIC

(By American Press)

New York, July 15.—The infantile paralysis plague that is ravaging this city and its surrounding boroughs reaped a record harvest during the last twenty-four hours.

There were 31 deaths from the disease during that period, an increase of 7 over the previous day. This brings the total deaths up to 342. In the same period 162 new cases were reported. The total number of cases reported is now 1,719. In the city hospitals there are at present 689 cases.

Meanwhile communities throughout the east are so stirred by the alarming reports from here that they are putting up bars both against children and adults coming from New York city.

Adrenalin injections into the spine have been used with favorable results in the Kingston avenue hospital in Brooklyn, according to Dr. Charles F. Bolduan. This drug has been used with growing frequency for stopping hemorrhages.

BOATS SAVE CREW

(By American Press)

Charleston, S. C., July 15.—Officials of the navy yard here announced that the crew of the naval collier Hector, reported sunk off here, had been taken off in small boats. A wireless message had been sent out asking all vessels to watch for the boats. It is said the collier has been beached near the Charleston lightship to prevent her from foundering.

IN A DASH

(By American Press)

Washington, July 15.—The chances of British destroyers or other types of craft catching the German submarine Deutschland depend largely, according to expert opinion in naval circles, on whether the wake of the submarine is sighted as she attempts to slip out. If the wake is picked up, the operations which the British naval forces are understood to have carefully planned, will have considerable chance of success. They will follow the wake and use nets spread between destroyers, grapple equipped with high explosive bombs, and at the same time endeavor to ram her.

But, after outlining these methods which the British navy will employ, experts here point out the tactics which the submarine will use to avoid them. The consensus of opinion is that the Deutschland has an excellent chance of escape. Captain Koenig will doubtless rely upon showing no sign of his ship's wake and conditions off the coast are very favorable to him. The fact that the water is comparatively shallow off the capes is taken in many quarters as a danger sign for Captain Koenig. American experts said that this is perhaps his greatest asset. He can submerge outside the three mile limit and calmly rest his submarine on the sandy bottom and remain there for several days, or perhaps weeks, if he cares to.

REMAINS PASS THROUGH CITY

Interment of Frank Shobe, Killed in C. H. & D. Wreck Near Coalton Yesterday, to Be Made in Dayton—Owned 600 Acres of Land in Fayette County.

The remains of Engineer Frank Shobe, who was killed when the engine of C. H. & D. passenger train No. 202 turned over near Coalton, Friday afternoon, passed through this city Saturday afternoon on No. 203, bound for Dayton where interment will probably take place Sunday or Monday.

Mr. Shobe was killed almost instantly, but his body lay under the hot engine from two o'clock until six o'clock and the steam and hot fire box literally cooked the body, leaving it black and swollen. He had leaped to save his life when the trucks of the tender left the rails, the fireman leaping from the opposite side and escaping with slight injuries.

The deceased was 55 years of age and leaves a widow, formerly Miss Bessie Baird of Dayton. He was a brother of Mr. Russel Shobe of Fairview, Edward of Austin, Charles, east of Good Hope and Jacob in Columbus. He also was a first cousin of Mr. W. C. Slagle of this city.

The deceased owned some 600 acres of land in this and Ross counties, and had many friends here.

The wreck was due to the high speed of the freight engine used in pulling the train.

Miss Jane Jones, nurse, of this city, who was on the way to her home in Gallia, O., was in both of the wrecks suffered by No. 202 but escaped with slight bruises.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Mr. Fred Hall, after an illness of two weeks returned to Columbus today to assist at Mt. Carmel Hospital and also do office and laboratory work.

Miss Emma Smith returned Friday evening from a week's delightful visit with Rev. F. E. Ross and family, in Ironton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Yeoman and Misses Mabel Larimer and Nina Foster are home from a visit with friends in Muncie, Albany and Dunkirk, Indiana.

TWO BIDS FILED FOR FLUSHING

Saturday noon two bids were filed for flushing the streets, and these bids will be presented to council Monday night. It is expected that some definite action will be taken at that time.

WHAT IS INFANTILE PARALYSIS?

Poliomyelitis is the technical name for the epidemic sweeping New York and menacing rest of the nation!

All known of the way the disease is spread is that there is a virus in the membrane of the nose which is spread by nasal discharges. Flies and dust may carry it.

It affects gray matter at base of brain, and even if child recovers, he is usually paralyzed for life.

The commonest among babies, adults are often victims; people 60 and 70 are known to have died of disease.

HOTEL KEEPERS ARE NOTIFIED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, July 15.—Hotel and boarding house keepers all over the state were notified today by local health officers that they would be expected to do their part to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis.

The local authorities, acting under instructions from the state commissioner of health, sent out circulars of warning, owing to the fact that thousands of families have left New York for rural districts to safeguard their children.

The state health department demands that local health officers see that glasses, dishes, spoons, and other utensils used in eating and drinking are thoroughly scalded and disinfected after use.

MARINES OF HECTOR LANDED

Difficulty Experienced in Getting Marines Off Disabled Boat—Crew Stays By the Ship.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

CHARLESTON, S. C., JULY 15—

ONE HUNDRED AND TWO MARINES AND SAILORS FROM THE BIG COLLIER HECTOR WERE LANDED HERE THIS MORNING BY THE TENDER CYPRESS.

Captain Newell and sixteen men remained aboard the Hector, which is lying aground off Charleston lightship, broken in two.

Four injured marines were sent to a local hospital.

The Hector broke in half yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, when her wireless became silent. One of the injured men has sustained a fractured skull.

The Hector sailed from Port Royal, S. C., carrying sixty marines to Santo Domingo, when she was partially disabled in Friday's hurricane.

She grounded while trying to make Charleston harbor, conveyed by the steamer Alamo.

High seas prevented the Alamo getting close enough to take off the men, who were forced to take to the life boats.

They were picked up by the Cypress, the Alamo and the Wilmington, which had been sent to the rescue. It is believed the vessel is a total loss.

MRS. HUGHES WILL BE THERE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Bridgehampton, N. Y., July 15.—Charles E. Hughes announced today that Mrs. Hughes would accompany him on his campaign trip to the Pacific coast next month.

Mrs. Hughes will also join her husband in his fortnight of outdoor life, which he is considering before entering on the last stage of the campaign.

Ice Mine Freezes Only In Summer.

At Coudersport, Pa., is the strangest mine in the world. It is an ice mine, which freezes in summer and thaws in winter. Charles Arthur Vandermuelen says in the Scientific American that it is a pit forty feet deep and from ten to twelve feet in diameter, up which pours a peculiar cold mist which comes from openings found all the way from the top to the bottom.

"As soon as warm weather arrives frost appears on the walls of the shaft and soon tiny icicles form rapidly, until in the warmest weather huge icicles, often two feet thick, reach from the top to the bottom of the mine."

Geologists can offer no explanation. The owner built a shed over the mine, but had to tear it down because as soon as the sun's rays were cut off the ice melted. Its normal thaw sets in in October.

Milton and Aerial Warfare.

Milton had a prophetic vision of war aeroplanes and Zeppelins when he wrote:

The towers of heaven are filled With armed watch that renders all access impregnable; oft on the bordering deep Encamp their legions, or with obscure wing Scout far and wide into the realm of night, Scorning surprise.

What if . . . this firmament Of hell should spout her cataracts of fire One day upon our heads?

Modern war is a very apt example of fitting after events to a prophecy.

Crowded Beach Near New York; Man Eating Shark.

Beach resorts near New York were thoroughly alarmed by the recent attacks of sharks on bathers, resulting in four deaths and one maiming, and feared the killing of the season unless the shark were captured speedily. Hundreds of men, with rifles, spears, dynamite and nets, searched New Jersey waters for the man eating shark that in its third attack since July 2, killed two men and two boys and maimed another boy. The scare that has gone the rounds of many New Jersey resorts since the first shark raid on bathers has not reached Coney Island and other places near New York, but bath-house keepers said they would take precautions against a visit from sharks although they do not believe there is any danger. Life guards will be stationed beyond the life lines to watch for possible approach, and if necessary the men will be armed. Fishermen will be stationed on piers with baited hooks. Men familiar with the habits of fish are frankly puzzled over the shark raids. Assuming that one man eater is responsible, it must have a long beat. It has been seen at Spring Lake, N. J., and at Bridgehampton, N. Y. If it is the same shark that went to Mattawan it must have skirted all of the lower bay of New York and at some time within the last few days passed Coney Island and the Rockaways. Pictures show a crowded bathing beach near New York and a man eating shark.

BRITISH DEEPEN THE BIG DENTS IN GERMAN LINE

Having Broken the Second Line Defense of Teutons, Gen. Haig Continues to Press On.

French on the Right Flank Are Comparatively Inactive.

Hard Fighting Between Russians and Turks Is Feature in Eastern Theater of War.

(Associated Press Cable)
LONDON, JULY 15. — BRITISH TROOPS AND BRITISH INFANTRY CONTINUE TO DEEPEN THE BIG DENT IN THE GERMAN LINES NORTH OF THE SOMME.

AFTER FORCING THE SECOND LINE ALONG A FOUR MILE FRONT GENERAL HAIG'S FORCES CONTINUED THE ATTACK TODAY.

As a result, the Germans at one point have been pushed back to their third line of defense.

This marks a British advance of four miles from the original German lines as they existed at the beginning of the offensive on July 1. The force of the renewed British drive is shown not only in the ground gained, but in the number of prisoners captured.

London reports the taking of more than 2,000 Germans within the past 24 hours. The total since the start of the offensive is now in excess of 10,000.

The French, on their right flank, are remaining comparatively inactive, having already achieved their tactical goal.

They are busy at Verdun, however, where they have repulsed an attack near the Avocourt redoubt, on the extreme left of the Verdun front, while their artillery is actively replying to bombardments by the German Prince's guns on the east bank of the Meuse.

At Apremont, attempted German attacks were broken up by the French fire. Hard fighting continues between Russians and Turks in Turkish Armenia, where the Russians are pushing westward from Mamakhatua. The result of the battle is so far inconclusive.

COOLER WEATHER FAILS TO RELIEVE FROM EPIDEMIC

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

New York, July 15.—A marked drop in temperature failed today to reduce the fatalities and development of the epidemic of infantile paralysis.

During the last 24 hours there have been 27 deaths and 144 new cases reported.

To control the epidemic, which is being felt in all parts of the country, the Rockefeller Foundation today donated the sum of $50,000 to those in charge of the fight.

ORPET'S FATE WITH JURORS

Young Collegian, Charged With Murder, Will Soon Learn His Fate

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Waukegan, Ill., July 15. — The case of Will H. Orpet, the University of Wisconsin student charged with the murder of Marian Lambert was given to the jury this afternoon.

Counsel for the defendant said that Judge Donnelly's instructions to the jury were tantamount to a command to acquit.

The audience today was composed mostly of women and packed the court room when the jury heard the last argument in the famous case.

Orpet seemed more cheerful at the prospect of the ending of the period of suspense, as he sat with his mother and father and his counsel.

Attorney David R. Joslyn, who began the closing arguments for the State, asked the jury to disregard the testimony of the State expert, Dr. W. G. McNally, who, after testifying for the state that Marian died of liquid poisoning, appeared for the defense and reversed his evidence.

"I am going to ask you gentlemen to ignore the testimony of hired experts from Chicago and use your own common sense," said Mr. Joslyn.

COMMISSION MAY SETTLE IT

United States and Mexico May Submit Differences to Joint Commission.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, July 15. — Solution of difficulties between the United States and Mexico appeared today to tend more and more toward settlement through an international joint commission.

Informal conferences between Acting Secretary Polk and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate, it was indicated, were developing questions for probable submission to such a body.

General Carranza is said to approve the commission plan of settling differences, as provided in the treaty of 1848, and State Department officials are believed to be willing to accede to such a course.

President Wilson is not dissatisfied with the direction negotiations are taking.

OHIO TROOPS WILL LEAVE WITHIN WEEK

Loading of Supplies Goes Forward With Great Enthusiasm.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

CAMP WILLIS, COLUMBUS, JULY 15.—THE FIGHTING EIGHTH REGIMENT OF THE OHIO NATIONAL GUARD, AFTER RECEIVING LONG EXPECTED ORDERS TO ENTRAIN FOR THE MEXICAN BORDER LATE THIS AFTERNOON UNDERTOOK THE TASK OF LOADING AND IS EXPECTED TO BE ON ITS WAY EARLY TONIGHT.

MAJOR ROBERT W. MEARN, SENIOR FEDERAL MUSTERING OFFICER, ANNOUNCES THAT HE HAS RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE CENTRAL DEPARTMENT HEADQUARTERS AT CHICAGO TO RUSH TO THE BORDER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE ALL OHIO TROOPS THAT CAN BE EQUIPPED.

THE OHIO CAVALRY EQUADRON ORDERED TO PREPARE TO ENTRAIN WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS IS UNDER COMMAND OF MAJOR DUDLEY J. HARD, OF CLEVELAND.

THE TROOPS ARE: A, OF CLEVELAND, KNOWN AS THE MILLIONAIRE TROOP, BECAUSE OF THE NUMBER OF WEALTHY MEN BELONGING TO IT; B, OF COLUMBUS; C, OF CINCINNATI; AND D, OF TOLEDO.

GOVERNOR FRANK B. WILLIS ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT HE HAD INVESTIGATED COMPLAINTS THAT UNSERVICABLE FOOD WAS BEING SERVED TO THE OHIO NATIONAL GUARD AND FOUND THAT STEPS TO REMEDY CONDITIONS OF THE COMPLAINT HAD BEEN TAKEN.

Camp Willis, Columbus, July 15.—The Eighth Regiment, Ohio National Guards, expect to leave Camp Willis for the Mexican border within 24 hours, Colonel Vollrath, commander of the unit, announced this morning.

Instructions have been issued to the commissary department to provide today's rations for each man.

Loading of supplies on railroad cars will begin at three o'clock this afternoon.

Colonel Vollrath has been instructed that all transportation for the Eighth will be available by 5 o'clock.

The commander refused to disclose to what point on the border the Eighth will be sent.

However it was rumored that El Paso or San Antonio will be the point.

The Eighth Regiment will be the first unit of the Ohio Guard to go south; others are expected to follow in quick order.

Major Robert W. Mearns, senior Federal mustering officer, today ordered the Ohio cavalry squadron to get ready to move.

However, no cars have been ordered yet for the cavalry, and it may be two or three days before they get away.

All of the Ohio troops will have left for the border within the week in the opinion of Major Mearns. The following are the units of the Eighth to entrain today:

Headquarters company from Lancaster; band from Akron; machine guns companies from Akron; supply company from Mansfield and the following companies of infantry: A, from Bucyrus; B, from Akron; C, from Canton; D, from Wooster; E, from Ashland; F, from Akron; G, from Wadsworth; H, from Shreve; I, from Tiffin; K, from Alliance; L, from Gallion, and M, from Mansfield.

REALIGNMENT OF TROOPS

Big Bend Country to Be Well Patrolled By Uncle Sam's Boys.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Boquillas, Texas, July 15.—Re-alignment of troops for the protection of the border against bandit raids in the Big Bend country began today with the arrival of a portion of the Pennsylvania National Guard and the dispatch of a troop of Cavalry to reinforce troops at Glenn Springs.

Troops are being rushed from Alpine and Marfa to the border, as a result of repeated warnings that bandits are advancing to the Rio Grande to raid this exposed portion of Texas.

Ranchers reported that Mexicans in the district across the river are near starvation and that they will soon be forced to raid to the American side to get food.

Five or six hundred Carranza soldiers are reported in the vicinity.

The bandit band is estimated at about 1,000 men.

BANDITS MUST DIE

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Laredo, Texas, July 15. — Jose Arre, Jesus Carda, Paulino Sanchez and Vincente Lira, four alleged bandits but self styled members of the Mexican Constitutionalist army charged with murder in connection with the killing of Corporal William Oberlies, of the Fourteenth United States Cavalry, were today found guilty by a jury and sentenced to death.

The men were captured at San Ygnacio, Texas, June 15, after a brush between their party and the Fourteenth Cavalry.

DAY BY DAY IN CAMP WILLIS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Willis, Columbus, O., July 15.—The Associated Press is the only press association having an office in headquarters row with the officers at Camp Willis.
The Associated Press correspondent at camp also has the unique distinction of being the only newspaper man to spend his entire time at the camp. His living tent and office is located but a few feet from the tent of General William V. McMaken, camp commander.

"The Willis Guards" is the designation members of Company "G" Second Regiment, from Ada, have given themselves. Governor Willis's home is at Ada.

Harry Morgan, 26, of Cincinnati and Louis Dillon of Philadelphia, are enlisted with Company "C", engineers, after having deserted from Canadian overseas expeditionary forces and reached the United States by scaling the superstructure of an international railroad bridge near Niagara Fall, N. Y.

There is but one place at Camp Willis where such luxuries as laundry bags, ebony and silver-mounted toilet sets, automobiles and tent rugs are to be found. It is in the quarters of the cavalry.

A number of the men of Troop "A", enlisted from prominent Cleveland families, brought their own automobiles to camp and their outfitings throughout correspond with this degree of ease and comfort. Some members of Troop "B" of Columbus also brought their machines to camp.

Orderly Harry Burnes, son of a wealthy Bridgeport family enlisted in Troop "B", does his errands for the most part in his own automobile.

The machine gun company of the Second Regiment, from Ada, is said to have the largest student membership of any of the guard organizations in camp, 46 of its 58 men being students at Ohio Northern University, Ada.

That it is possible to be so fatigued that one does not care where he lies was demonstrated in the camp of Troop "B" of Columbus, according to members of that "outfit."
Charles Koehl, quartermaster sergeant of the troop, was picked to be the victim of the jokers of the company. Rocks and gravel were placed in his bunk, but when Koehl "turned in" from picket duty, he was so tired he never noticed the stones and slept soundly until morning.

Initiation into membership in Troop "B", Columbus, is ceremony regarded with some trepidation by "rookies." New recruits in this command are made fast with a lariat and dragged a couple of hundred feet about the camp by eight or ten troopers, given an "army ride" on a rail or tossed into the air and caught a number of times on an army blanket.

A bulldog, guardsmen declared, is not such an undesirable bed-fellow especially on a cool night, but C. G. Kalb of Troop "B", Columbus, says they are not so friendly when you try to climb into their bunks unannounced.

Kalb according to his mess mates, got to camp a few minutes after "taps" one night. By careful maneuvering he got past the guard line and crawled silently into his tent, stepping over forms of his sleeping comrades.

He was getting along splendidly and was congratulating himself on his success in being undiscovered when, as he shoved a foot down under his blanket there was a loud "woof" and Trooper the troop's mascot, had him by the leg. In a trice, every man in the tent was awake.

A few days assignment to the kitchen police was Kalb's penalty for getting into camp late.

A band of Gypsies located near Camp Willis is reaping a harvest of small change from guardsmen who have their fortunes told. Officers say that an unusually large number of the "boys" go to the Gypsies to learn whether their commands will ever get to the border, whether they will return home unrounded and whether the girl they left behind will remain true.

"They've been going together for two years," laughed, Mr. Cupp's mother Monday. "And they seem ideally matched."

"POP" GEERS INJURED

Gnarled and wrinkled and bent with the long years of service in the sulky, the veteran driver Edward F. Geers, had entered another formidable stable in the Grand Circuit campaign which opens at North Randall July 17.	1891	45,147.50
One of the accomplishments the famous southern driver hoped to put over this season was to drive a horse in two minutes. He has driven The Harvester, his fastest trotter, in 2:01, which is the world's record for a stallion of that gait.	1892	43,550.00
He also has driven the pacers Essie H. Kay and Napoleon Direct in 2:00 3/4. The big question this year was, could he clip three-quarters of a second from the record of Napoleon Direct?	1893	50,800.00
He was born at Lebanon, Wilson County, Tenn., January 25, 1851. There are few, if any, people connected with the harness turf that have not read about or had the pleasure of seeing "Pop" Geers, as the grand old man of the turf is more familiarly known by the harness horse fans.	1894	55,285.00
The following table includes the amount of money won by horses that he drove himself during his campaigns from 1890 to 1915, and if the amounts won by horses that were in his stable but were driven by other trainers during that period were included the total would be swelled considerably:	1895	58,210.00
1890	1896	39,390.00
	1897	56,630.00
	1898	38,150.00
	1899	28,915.00
	1900	22,690.00
	1901	58,590.00
	1902	116,370.00
	1903	67,997.50
	1904	50,355.00
	1905	36,854.00
	1906	38,134.00
	1907	59,735.00
	1908	49,230.00
	1909	35,201.00
	1910	45,444.75
	1911	38,752.50
	1912	35,937.75
	1913	49,526.00
	1914	45,385.00
	1915	52,143.00
	Total	$1,230,597.50

Geers has driven hundreds of heats inside the 2:10 list, and during his career on the turf has given their fastest records to 50 2:10 trotters and 44 2:10 pacers.
Notwithstanding his enormous aggregate of winnings Geers is only in modest financial circumstances.
While reports are to the effect that the famous reinsman is resting easy, on account of his advanced age grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

BIG FIRE

(By American Press)

New York, July 15.—One man was killed and great loss was caused by a fire which swept the state arsenal in this city. The dead man was Thomas McNally, a state chauffeur, who died from burns. When the fire was discovered the engineer turned on the automatic sprinkler and in this way guarded against a terrific explosion, which undoubtedly would have occurred otherwise. In the arsenal were many new auto trucks purchased by the state for use on the Mexican border.

Messrs. J. W. Duffee & Co., City.

Gentlemen: About two months ago we discovered a big nest of ants in our lawn and attempted to get rid of them, using gasoline, turpentine, lime, etc., in turn. All of these failed to accomplish the desired result.

Your Mr. Todhunter gave the hill a liberal dose of your "Killo" and in a few days not an ant could be found. It certainly did the business.

Very truly yours,

Borrowing Brains and Buying Power

WHEN you buy a season ticket to the Chautauqua you are borrowing brains and buying power. You are investing two dollars in what has cost the men and women who bring it to you lifetimes of endeavor.

For two dollars you get the product of the organizing genius of Fortune Gallo, who brings to the Chautauqua the entire San Carlo Grand Opera Company, the building of which has been his life's work. You hear these famous song birds in the programs on which they have builded their fame. You get the product of the musical studies to which these great musical artists have devoted their lives.

For two dollars you get the musical artistry of many others — the Metropolitan Grand Quartet, called the best in America—The Davenny Quintett, established in musical worth—White's Review Company in popular and pleasing program—the Florentines, novelty musicians of rare renown—Colangelo's Musicians extraordinary—the Boston Entertainers.

For two dollars you get the entertainment artistry of Germain, the master magician; of Sidney Landon, the characterist—to the development of whose programs years have been given.

For two dollars you get the use of the brain of Glenn Frank, who has devoured libraries that you may profit; the inspiration of J. Whitecomb Brounger, who has seen life that he may interpret it to you; the research of years which Ida Tarbell has made; the knowledge of youth and its training gleaned by Medbury in a lifetime of usefulness; the entertainment, the information, the joy of contact with the minds of Evans, of Ray, of Wilkinson and others.

It would take you months to absorb the information you'll get in a week at the Chautauqua; it would take a visit to the metropolitan centers to get the music; it would take more than the price of the season ticket to enjoy the entertainment.

And it is all yours for two dollars. For fourteen cents a session (for your season ticket is good for fourteen sessions of the Chautauqua) you can borrow master brains and buy power.

Do it today. Get that season ticket.

Suspicious and Fears

Last Thursday evening the police made another raid, capturing and taking into custody a quartette of alleged vendors of intoxicating liquors.

As is usually the case the accused parties are not very powerful "dealers." No one ever suspected them of handling very large quantities of the contraband goods.

If guilty as charged they should be punished—there is no argument about that, but there are, unless the very pronounced suspicions, which a great many of our citizens hold, are entirely without foundation, some dealers in intoxicants operating on a very much more pretentious scale, doing a vast amount more harm and who are very much more of a menace to the community than the petty violators who are periodically gathered in by the police drag net.

Of course the police should know better than any other citizens as to law violations and the fact that some of the recognized heavier liquor dealers escape arrest is an evidence that no violations on the larger scale exist. Notwithstanding that presumption, however, there are hundreds of Washington people who are firmly convinced that there is "boot-legging" on a pretentious scale going on within the limits of the city.

They feel that unless some radical move is made to break up the favorite congregating an awful tragedy will result.

More Visitors From the Sea

The accounts of the appearance of a large "man eating" shark on the New Jersey coast Tuesday, the monster from the sea traveling up the streams which flow to the coast, a distance in some instances, of ten miles, rival the tales of the appearance of the "monster sea serpent," off the Atlantic coast in 1851.

As to the earlier appearance of a strange monster from the deep the public was compelled to rely upon the statements of navigators and fishermen who had seen at a distance the great green monster winding its sinewy lengths through and over the great billows of the ocean.

The sea serpent of the fifties was seen only by one or two persons at a time and left behind no positive evidence of its visit. Naturally there were people in those days, history tells us, who doubted the statements as to the size, color and appearance of the serpent and some pessimists were uncharitable enough to insist that no one had ever actually seen the sea serpent. Well organized searching parties made up of men of science patrolled the coasts for months but the deep sea guest was never sighted by them.

In the case Tuesday a number of trustworthy "level headed" folks saw the great shark coming into Mateawan Creek from the sea. Motor boat captains went ahead of the incoming monster to warn bathers some of whom were unable and some, unbelieving, refused, to hurry to a place of safety on the shore and, as a consequence, the shark left horribly conclusive evidence of his visit to the New Jersey coast streams.

These are strange times on land and sea, times when living things seem to be breaking loose from their accustomed bearings.

The Atlantic ocean has brought to the American shores the first under water man-made creation—the German submarine merchantman—and within two days furnishes safe passage for a man eating shark, into strange inland waters.

We have long realized that we didn't know "what was under the ground until we dug for it;" now we must acknowledge that under the surface of the sea strange creatures move about and new habitations are being scouted out.

Perhaps the shark gave chase to the big sub boat or perhaps the mines and bombs and strange under sea craft of man's creation peaching upon the sharks' domain has sent them out "prospecting" for quiet homes.

Judge Clarke Named

On Friday President Wilson nominated Judge John H. Clarke for the position on the supreme court bench made vacant by the resignation of Justice Hughes. Once again the great progressive city on Lake Erie—Cleveland—has had one of its citizens elevated to an important post in the service of the nation.

With the selection of Newton D. Baker as Secretary of War and Judge Clarke as Justice of the Supreme Court, Cleveland has indeed been signally honored by the national administration.

Judge Clarke is a lawyer of recognized ability and while a democrat has not at all times been enthusiastically in accord with the party leaders. Judge Clarke has always been recognized as preferring more the conservative wing of the party though not an extremist in his preference.

Ambitious to be chosen United States Senator, Judge Clarke has been defeated by the electorate of the state largely because he was not in entire accord with the element in control of the party.

He will undoubtedly render great and honorable service on the supreme bench.

The nomination is a good one.

Poetry For Today

THE MEETING OF THE WATERS.

There is not in the wide world a valley so sweet
 As the vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet;
 Oh, the last rays of feeling and life must depart,
 Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.

Yet it was not that nature had shed o'er the scene
 Her purest of crystal and brightest of green;
 'Twas not her soft magic of stream-let or hill,
 Oh, no—it was something more exquisite still.

'Twas that friends, the beloved of my bosom, were near,
 Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear,
 And who felt that the best charms of nature improve,
 When we see them reflected from looks that we love.

Sweet vale of Avoca! How calm could I rest
 In thy bosom of shade, with the friends I love best,
 Where the storms that we feel in this cold world should cease,
 And our hearts, like thy waters, be mingled in peace.

—Thomas Moore.

AWFUL PROOF

(By American Press)

Mattawan, N. J., July 15.—A shark measuring eight and a half feet in length was killed off Atlantic Highlands, and its body was taken to New York. It had been caught in the meshes of a fisherman's net and the killing of the giant fish was then an easy matter. The news of the killing of the shark lent new interest and activity to the work of attempting to clear the waters hereabouts of these monsters. Also by the discovery of the body of Lester Stillwell, the twelve-year-old lad who was dragged down on Wednesday afternoon. The force of shark fighters has gained hundreds of recruits.

Fire Chief Emmons exploded more than seventy-five tons of dynamite in the creek. Columns of water were thrown high in the air. But despite the explosions there was no sign of the shark.

BANDIT HAS 6,000 "TROOPS"

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., July 15.—A musician from Chihuahua brings a report to the border to the effect that Pancho Villa, in command of 6,000 men of the brigades of Canute Reyes and Calisto Contreras, fought a superior force of Carranzistas, led by officers of General Jacinto Trevino's division, southwest of Jiminez, for five consecutive days, and Villistas are now engaged with Carranza troops at Diaz, near Santa Rosalia.

"I will take Chihuahua in two months," is the frequent declaration of Villa, according to the musician. He says Villa is going about with a crutch and a cane, one of his legs being badly injured.

Trevino's troops drove the Villistas out of Jiminez after they had confiscated all available foodstuffs in that town. The bandman said there were 15,000 Carranzistas opposing Villa's men. He said that during the engagements around Jiminez two trainloads of dead and wounded Carranza soldiers were brought to Chihuahua.

The Mexican said that when he left Chihuahua fighting was reported still in progress and desertions of Trevino's men to Villa were going on. He asserted that the soldiers in the Chihuahua garrison are all for Villa and would like to see him take the city.

A body of Villistas raided Ojos Calientes, the hot springs settlement, two and one-half miles west of Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, early this week, confiscated provisions and pressed all the able bodied men they could find into service for Villa, according to the statement of the wife of a physician who reached El Paso from Mexico. The woman reported that the people of Santa Rosalia are Villa sympathizers.

Another passenger arriving from Santa Rosalia said Villa forces are recruiting rapidly and that practically every available man in central Chihuahua is joining Villa's standard.

CARRANZA'S TALK

(By American Press)

Mexico City, July 15.—General Carranza, in an interview here, said that the status of the negotiations with Washington was very satisfactory, as the result of the good will shown to each other by Mexico and the United States. "Thanks to this feeling of good will," the first chief continued, "we will be able to avoid war. War is something I do not desire, but if there were no other remedy for the situation I would enter upon it."

COLONEL HUBLER FILES COMPLAINT

(By American Press)

Columbus, July 15.—In written complaint to General William V. McKen, camp commander, Colonel Robert L. Hubler of Dayton expresses fear that Ohio soldiers at Camp Willis will suffer from ptomaine poisoning if the present quality of food continues to be served to them.

Colonel Hubler states in the letter that the soldiers have been served moldy bread, a poor quality of beans, some of which are "rotten," and an inferior grade of milk. He also registered a complaint with Governor Willis when the latter visited him in camp. The meat that has been served is excellent, it is said, and other victuals are of good quality except the bread, beans and milk.

Major A. W. Reynolds, in charge of the post commissary, said that the moldy bread had been sent from Toledo on a subcontract for a Columbus baking company, which was unable to supply the contract demand. He added that the contract has now expired and a new one awarded to a Columbus company.

Major Reynolds admitted that the beans are not "No. 1" quality, but said that none of the best beans are now in the market. He insisted, however, that the beans are entirely serviceable and wholesome.

Governor Willis said that he thinks the food situation will be straightened out quickly.

In addition to the many cases which developed from the routine of a night's duty on the part of the police, there were 226 cases involving various alleged infractions of the automobile traffic ordinances.

BRITISH SUCCESS ON SOMME

(By American Press)

London, July 15.—Important second positions of the Germans in the Somme have been captured by the British after a brief bombardment.

On a front of four miles the British have advanced to a depth of a mile and have held all positions gained in spite of violent counter attacks.

The strategic importance of the British successes is marked by the straightening of their line in conformity with that of the French, who had hitherto advanced at a much greater speed than their allies. The brevity of the preliminary bombardment, coupled with the statements of press correspondents at the front that the British losses were comparatively small, lend support to unofficial statements that the German second line was much less strongly fortified than their first defenses.

On the French portion of the Somme front no action of importance was recorded, but in the French official statement for Friday it was announced that the bombardment of German positions on the Belgian front had reached a point of the greatest intensity.

This announcement receives additional significance, as for more than a week the Belgians have reported a persistent and destructive bombardment directed at the German fortifications. These announcements were similar to those made by the British preceding the opening of their great offensive, and may possibly indicate that another big forward movement statement it was openly announced at the extreme western end of the battle line.

The only actions reported on the Verdun front were assaults made by the French. These assaults were noted in the German official statement, which made no claims of any German offensive action.

On the Russian front the great battle of Stokhod is still raging, with the issue remaining in the balance. The most important news from the Russian side is in regard to the operations in the Caucasus. Grand Duke Nicholas reports continuous and substantial successes against the Turks and apparently is launching another great offensive in the region of Erzerum and Balburt.

TWENTY-NINE MEMBERS OF COMPANY M REJECTED

Federal Examination Riddles the Ranks of Company M and Fourth Regiment, But Loss Is No Greater Than That of Other Companies, It Is Claimed—Boys Dismissed Return Home

The "losses" experienced by Company M as a result of the attack made upon the company by the federal examiners has riddled the ranks to the extent of twenty-nine members, including First Sergeant Pearl Smith, Sergeant Barten Vincent, the musician, Charles S. Paul, and even the cook, Strader Wilson.

Guy P. Smith, Charles Sollars, Ray Vance.

Out of a total of approximately 125 men the loss is lower than that suffered by some of the other companies with fewer men.

The reason for the dismissal was that the men were not up to the standard physically, required by the stringent rules of the regular army and the least physical defect was regarded as sufficient cause for dismissal from further service.

The total number of men lost by the Fourth Regiment as a result of the examinations reached around the 300 mark. The work of recruiting to fill up the vacancies is expected to be pushed during the next few days.

The members of Company M who were dismissed at the examination held Friday afternoon, are returning to their homes and to their work in this city and surrounding territory.

The entire Ohio Guard has been mustered into Federal service and it is expected that many of the troops will be sent to the border the coming week.

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT FINANCIAL SUCCESS

An attractive entertainment and social was enjoyed by a large number at Wesley Chapel Friday night. Miss Mary Edge was the instigator and successful promoter of the entertainment, which was well given and pleasingly varied.

Ten little girls of Miss Agnes Kerrigan's primary department at Sunnyside excellently trained by their teacher, gave songs and a taking "Grandmother's Drill," in which they were costumed as tiny grandmothers.

Miss Jean Hollingsworth sang a pretty solo; Mrs. Coffey accompanied and was given a generous encore.

Miss Marguerite Wilson was the evening's reader, and her natural impersonations and clever work delighted the audience.

A much appreciated number was the octette sung by Misses Wiatt, Dodds, Householder, Knisley, Church, Minshall, Elliott and Hyer. The singers were promptly recalled.

Two sparkling piano duets opened and closed the program, Misses Dorothy Wiatt and Norma Dodds opening the program and Misses Mary Edge and Opal Church closing it effectively.

The audience remained seated for light summer refreshments served by the refreshment committee; Mesdames Hughey, Norris and Ellison, Mrs. H. V. Rodgers, acting president of the Mite Society, had the affair under general management.

It was gratifying to the Chapel to learn that the entertainment cleared a sum more than sufficient to remodel the lighting system, the purpose for which given.

ENGINEER OF YARD ENGINE FEARS HOODOO

Believing Yard Engine Is Ill-Starred, Hobenbach Resigns and Returns to His Farm—Smash up in This City Friday Recalls Another Close Call.

Believing that the yard engine used by the B. & O. and C. H. & D. for switching purposes in connection with the union freight station here is hoodooed, Engineer Hobenbach has tendered his resignation and returns to his farm in Ross county, where he believes the dangers are less and where he expects to spend the remainder of his days.

Hobenbach's resignation comes as result of the smashup in this city Friday morning when passenger train No. 202 went through an open switch and smashed head-on into the yard engine, and later the engineer of the train, Frank Shobe, riding a strange engine, was killed in a wreck near Byers Station southeast of Chillicothe.

With the resignation of Hobenbach it develops that a short time ago a serious wreck was avoided by a hair's breadth when the switch engine barely got into the siding and switch closed as a passenger train, said to be breaking the city ordinance, dashed past.

With the actual smash-up and the fatal wreck occurring later in the day, when an engine pulling the same passenger train was turned over and Engineer Shobe roasted alive as he was pinioned under the engine, the affair unnerved Hobenbach and he quit the railroading game.

SHERLOCK IS CAPTURED BY 14-YEAR BOY

"Mysterious Mr. Sherlock Holmes" Proves to Be the Genial County Auditor, Who Has Many Amusing Experiences—Little Frank Brown Lucky Boy.

Fourteen-year-old Frank Brown, son of Mrs. Hattie Brown, of High street, is the lucky person who succeeded in capturing the "Mysterious Mr. Sherlock Holmes," alias County Auditor Glenn M. Pine, who had great sport in eluding capture, but found it really much easier than he had anticipated.

The capture was made at 5:19 Friday evening while "Sherlock" was crossing the street from Christopher's Drug Store and after he had been all but captured a number of times. His captor took him in tow to the Palace Theater where later in the evening the $20 in cash was paid to the happy youngster who departed for home with a very light heart.

So carefully had the identity of Sherlock been guarded that no one suspected Mr. Pine of being the mysterious sleuth until late Friday evening, Mr. Pine had visited the various points announced, and in fact had visited them several times.

At Christopher's Drug Store at four o'clock he was approached by City Auditor McFadden, who gave the necessary spiel and had the proper credentials, but he failed to take hold of Sherlock as required.

At the Ellis Jewelry Store Sherlock had quite a chat with Rye Parvin, discussing fishing.

At the Flowers Bakery he found no cigars but plenty of fresh buns, and the clerk was unsuspecting.

At Bending's Pool Room and Restaurant he found Minor Crites too busy devouring a late lunch or early dinner to even suspect the proximity of Sherlock.

At Girard's store he told the clerk he desired some post cards, and that she might send them by Sherlock. She did not take the hint.

At H. C. Anthony's Tailor Shop he chatted a short time with E. J. Light.

At Wilkin's Clothing Store he tried on a palm beach coat and then after a stop at Gregg's shoe store, where he was accosted by Herman Price, salesman in the store, Sherlock went to Barnett's grocery, where he was accused of being Sherlock, but no proper attempt was made to catch him.

At Rodecker's News Stand he was informed by the clerk that she was sure he had been standing near Sherlock the previous day. Mr. Pine also was sure that he had.

After a chat with Mart DeWitt, who evidently was not looking for an easy $20, he continued on his journey until captured.

At the Palace Theater, Friday night, "Sherlock" was introduced and the award made to Frank Brown, the captor of great detective.

BIG UNION SERVICE UNDER THE CANVAS

All arrangements are being made for the union services of the city churches in the big Chautauqua tent on the Central school grounds, Sunday evening.

The song service begins at 7:30, a union choir to furnish the music, and at eight o'clock Dr. J. Lewis Smith, pastor of Tremont Baptist church, Pasadena, California, and heralded as one of the greatest pastors of the west, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "The Yosemite Valley—the Marvel of Beauty." The public is cordially invited.

ECLIPSE VIEWED BY MANY CITIZENS

The almost total eclipse of the moon—one of the best ever viewed by local citizens, was watched with a great deal of interest Friday night, both while the moon was passing into the shadow and while it was leaving the shadow.

The best view was obtained about 10:45, when the eclipse was at its best. The moon hung in the heavens as clear as crystal, and not a cloud appeared throughout the entire period to mar the beauty of the unusual spectacle.

FIREMAN LEWIS QUILTS TONIGHT

Driver of Huge Motor Fire Truck to Accept Job in Government Service and Leaves for Arizona First of the Week—Refusal to Increase Wage Brings on Grave Situation.

Fireman W. L. Lewis, driver of the motor fire truck and an expert mechanic, will quit his job tonight to accept a position in the Government service as driver of a truck on the Mexican border, and leaves Sunday for Springfield to report for duty Monday morning.

Mr. Lewis, who has been receiving $69 per month, sometime ago sought an increase to $75. Inasmuch as he had taken the place of two men in the department and is unusually well qualified for motor truck driving. The increase was refused by council, and when he received an offer of $100 per month an all expenses for driving a truck in the government service, he took steps to accept.

He reports to the Kelly-Springfield Motor Truck Company and upon passing the necessary test, leaves Monday night with a shipment of trucks for "somewhere" in America, to take up his duties without further delay.

The resignation of Mr. Lewis leaves two men at the department, neither of whom claims to be a thorough mechanic. Chief Mayo can operate the truck, but the services of another man will be required at once to bring the department up to the standard.

YOUNGSTERS TAKE PLEASURE IN WORK

All of the large number of boys and girls who are earning their own chautauqua tickets are taking great pleasure in the work, and many and varied are the methods of earning the price of a ticket.

Little Miss Ramona Short earned her dollar helping her mother wash dishes, doing errands for the neighbors. She bought and paid for her ticket Wednesday and is proud of it.

Robert Bay, earned his dollar by feeding chickens and pigs while visiting in the country, and by selling peas and beans to a member of the school board.

Alice Elizabeth Ellis writes that she earned her ticket by making up beds, sweeping drive and pavement three times each week.

Warning!

JUST as the Klaxon warns PEDESTRIANS, we would warn MOTORISTS.

We would say—and as emphatically as the Klaxon says it—“LOOK OUT.”

Look out for horns that LOOK like Klaxons but are NOT Klaxons.

The only way to be sure you are getting a genuine Klaxon—with the famous Klaxon note and the Klaxon guarantee of PERMANENT satisfaction is to find the Klaxon name-plate:—

—“the only sign of a perfect signal.”

WE know auto horns. We have to. It's our business.

We know the stuff that goes into them; and the sound that comes out.

We know why the Klaxon is the most widely used auto horn in the world.

Because it is MADE right. Because it always WORKS. Because it is always HEARD. Because it LASTS FOREVER.

There is no signal that can compare with it in warning-power, carrying-power and dependability. Once let us put one on your car and you will never drive without it. It's the modern means of safe and satisfactory motoring.

WOULD SHUT OUT NEGROES

(By American Press)

Washington, July 15.—Addressing the senate on the Japanese problem in America, Senator Works declared that the issue could be solved only by keeping the Pacific ocean between peoples of the two nations.

Because of the essential racial differences, Senator Works asserted, there could be no racial toleration of the Japanese, because that inevitably would lead to race amalgamation, which was unthinkable. He argued that the time had come when the United States, as an act of self-preservation, should declare by statute its purpose "not to tolerate further race complications on our soil, by preventing immigration of all peoples not of the white race."

The California senator declared that relations between the United States and Japan were friendly, but insisted that Japan's "gentlemen's agreement" did not prevent Japanese from coming to America. "Nor does it meet the necessity," he added, "of excluding those who are here, or others who may come, from owning land in the states, a condition that is most objectionable. Neither does it meet the complications that is going to result from the incoming of 'picture brides,' of which there are already hundreds, perhaps thousands, in my state."

The senator continued: "If we had long ago enacted laws excluding everybody from the country who were not eligible to become citizens we would not have 70,000 Japanese in the United States, 55,000 of whom are in California. We have temporized and compromised our rights, which has brought about the present complications that may imperil our friendly relations with the Japanese nation."

"If war with Japan comes, what then? Have we prepared for it? Will we be prepared for it if the proposed program of military and naval expansion is carried out? No; not on the Pacific coast. To make the Pacific coast states secure, we must have two armies and two navies, one on each side of the sea coasts."

"I do not believe we are going to have war with Japan, but those who think so should see to it that the Pacific coast, which must bear the brunt of any fighting with that country, has a sufficient portion of the increased army and navy to protect it from attack."

IN A DASH

(By American Press)

Washington, July 15.—The chances of British destroyers or other types of craft catching the German submarine Deutschland depend largely, according to expert opinion in naval circles, on whether the wake of the submarine is sighted as she attempts to slip out. If the wake is picked up, the operations which the British naval forces are understood to have carefully planned, will have considerable chance of success. They will follow the wake and use nets spread between destroyers, grapple equipped with high explosive bombs, and at the same time endeavor to ram her.

But, after outlining these methods which the British navy will employ, experts here point out the tactics which the submarine will use to avoid them. The consensus of opinion is that the Deutschland has an excellent chance of escape. Captain Koenig will doubtless rely upon showing no sign of his ship's wake and conditions off the coast are very favorable to him. The fact that the water is comparatively shallow off the capes is taken in many quarters as a danger sign for Captain Koenig. American experts said that this is perhaps his greatest asset. He can submerge outside the three mile limit and calmly rest his submarine on the sandy bottom and remain there for several days, or perhaps weeks, if he cares to.

THE CHICAGO DATE

(By American Press)

Chicago, July 15.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential candidate, will make his first Chicago campaign appearance Aug. 8. From Chicago he goes to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

NAVAL COLLIER IN BIG STORM

More Than 140 Persons, Including 60 Marines, on Board.

Charleston, S. C., July 15.—The big naval collier Hector, carrying 60 marines, in addition to her crew of 70 men and 12 officers, sank off Charleston, according to a report from Captain Hunt of the tug Vigilant, which tried to go to the Hector's assistance. He was unable to say whether those aboard escaped.

The steamer Alamo had been standing by the collier, having responded to her calls when she was disabled some miles off here in a hurricane. Static conditions were such that no wireless report could be obtained from the Alamo. The sea still was running high.

The Hector left Port Royal for Santo Domingo. She attempted to put into port here when the storm disabled her, but, according to Captain Hunt, went down about nine and a half miles from the Charleston lightship. Captain Hunt said part of the collier's superstructure remained above water. The Hector displaced 11,200 tons, was 384 feet long and was built at Sparrows Point, Md., in 1908.

BOATS SAVE CREW

(By American Press)

Charleston, S. C., July 15.—Officials of the navy yard here announced that the crew of the naval collier Hector, reported sunk off here, had been taken off in small boats. A wireless message had been sent out asking all vessels to watch for the boats. It is said the collier has been beached near the Charleston lightship to prevent her from foundering.

A SCANDAL?

(By American Press)

Columbus, July 15.—Charles V. Williams, head of the state board's children welfare department, says that not only one but twenty children's homes in Ohio are under investigation by the state board of charities. He added that no more children will be admitted to a county home in southeastern Ohio, where physical torture and brutal punishment of child inmates has been charged against a former superintendent. Williams stood pat on his refusal to give the name of the superintendent under fire or the location of the institution in question. "The man has resigned," he said.

George E. Beasley, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Athens County Children's home, denied at Athens that he is guilty of charges now under investigation by the state.

REMAINS PASS THROUGH CITY

Interment of Frank Shobe, Killed in C. H. & D. Wreck Near Coalton Yesterday, to Be Made in Dayton—Owned 600 Acres of Land in Fayette County.

The remains of Engineer Frank Shobe, who was killed when the engine of C. H. & D. passenger train No. 202 turned over near Coalton, Friday afternoon, passed through this city Saturday afternoon on No. 203, bound for Dayton where interment will probably take place Sunday or Monday.

Mr. Shobe was killed almost instantly, but his body lay under the hot engine from two o'clock until six o'clock and the steam and hot fire box literally cooked the body, leaving it black and swollen. He had leaped to save his life when the trucks of the tender left the rails, the fireman leaping from the opposite side and escaping with slight injuries.

The deceased was 55 years of age and leaves a widow, formerly Miss Bessie Baird of Dayton. He was a brother of Mr. Russel Shobe of Fairview, Edward of Austin, Charles, east of Good Hope and Jacob in Columbus. He also was a first cousin of Mr. W. C. Slagle of this city.

The deceased owned some 600 acres of land in this and Ross counties, and had many friends here.

The wreck was due to the high speed of the freight engine used in pulling the train.

Miss Jane Jones, nurse, of this city, who was on the way to her home in Gallia, O., was in both of the wrecks suffered by No. 202 but escaped with slight bruises.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Mr. Fred Hall, after an illness of two weeks returned to Columbus today to assist at Mt. Carmel Hospital and also do office and laboratory work.

Miss Emma Smith returned Friday evening from a week's delightful visit with Rev. F. E. Ross and family, in Ironton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Yeoman and Misses Mabel Larrimer and Nina Foster are home from a visit with friends in Muncie, Albany and Dunkirk, Indiana.

TWO BIDS FILED FOR FLUSHING

Saturday noon two bids were filed for flushing the streets, and these bids will be presented to council Monday night. It is expected that some definite action will be taken at that time.

WHAT IS INFANTILE PARALYSIS?

Poliomyelitis is the technical name for the epidemic sweeping New York and menacing rest of the nation!

All known of the way the disease is spread is that there is a virus in the membrane of the nose which is spread by nasal discharges. Flies and dust may carry it.

It affects gray matter at base of brain, and even if child recovers, he is usually paralyzed for life.

The commonest among babies, adults are often victims; people 60 and 70 are known to have died of disease.

HOTEL KEEPERS ARE NOTIFIED

By Associated Press Dispatch. New York, July 15.—Hotel and boarding house keepers all over the state were notified today by local health officers that they would be expected to do their part to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis.

The local authorities, acting under instructions from the state commissioner of health, sent out circulars of warning, owing to the fact that thousands of families have left New York for rural districts to safeguard their children.

The state health department demands that local health officers see that glasses, dishes, spoons, and other utensils used in eating and drinking are thoroughly scalded and disinfected after use.

MARINES OF HECTOR LANDED

Difficulty Experienced in Getting Marines Off Disabled Boat—Crew Stays By the Ship.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

CHARLESTON, S. C., JULY 15.—ONE HUNDRED AND TWO MARINES AND SAILORS FROM THE BIG COLLIER HECTOR WERE LANDED HERE THIS MORNING BY THE TENDER CYPRESS.

Captain Newell and sixteen men remained aboard the Hector, which is lying aground off Charleston lightship, broken in two.

Four injured marines were sent to a local hospital.

The Hector broke in half yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, when her wireless became silent.

One of the injured men has sustained a fractured skull.

The Hector sailed from Port Royal, S. C., carrying sixty marines to Santo Domingo, when she was partially disabled in Friday's hurricane.

She grounded while trying to make Charleston harbor, convoyed by the steamer Alamo.

High seas prevented the Alamo getting close enough to take off the men, who were forced to take to the life boats.

They were picked up by the Cypress, the Alamo and the Wilmington, which had been sent to the rescue. It is believed the vessel is a total loss.

MRS. HUGHES WILL BE THERE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Bridgehampton, N. Y., July 15.—Charles E. Hughes announced today that Mrs. Hughes would accompany him on his campaign trip to the Pacific coast next month.

Mrs. Hughes will also join her husband in his fortnight of outdoor life, which he is considering before entering on the last stage of the campaign.

Ice Mine Freezes Only In Summer.

At Coudersport, Pa., is the strangest mine in the world. It is an ice mine, which freezes in summer and thaws in winter. Charles Arthur Vandermaelen says in the Scientific American that it is a pit forty feet deep and from ten to twelve feet in diameter, up which pours a peculiar cold mist which comes from openings found all the way from the top to the bottom.

"As soon as warm weather arrives frost appears on the walls of the shaft and soon tiny icicles form rapidly, until in the warmest weather huge icicles, often two feet thick, reach from the top to the bottom of the mine."

Geologists can offer no explanation. The owner built a shed over the mine, but had to tear it down because as soon as the sun's rays were cut off the ice melted. Its normal thaw sets in in October.

Milton and Aerial Warfare.

Milton had a prophetic vision of war aeroplanes and Zeppelins when he wrote:

The towers of heaven are filled With armed watch that renders all access impregnable; oft on the bordering deep Encamp their legions, or with obscure wing Scout far and wide into the realm of night, Scorning surprise.

What if . . . this firmament Of hell should spout her cataracts of fire One day upon our heads?

Modern war is a very apt example of fitting after events to a prophecy.

Crowded Beach Near New York; Man Eating Shark.

Beach resorts near New York were thoroughly alarmed by the recent attacks of sharks on bathers, resulting in four deaths and one maiming, and feared the killing of the season unless the shark were captured speedily. Hundreds of men, with rifles, spears, dynamite and nets, searched New Jersey waters for the man eating shark that in its third attack since July 2, killed two men and two boys and maimed another boy. The scare that has gone the rounds of many New Jersey resorts since the first shark raid on bathers has not reached Cony Island and other places near New York, but bath-house keepers said they would take precautions against a visit from sharks although they do not believe there is any danger. Life guards will be stationed beyond the life lines to watch for possible approach, and if necessary the men will be armed. Fishermen will be stationed on piers with baited hooks. Men familiar with the habits of fish are frankly puzzled over the shark raids. Assuming that one man eater is responsible, it must have a long beat. It has been seen at Spring Lake, N. J., and at Bridgehampton, N. Y. If it is the same shark that went to Mattawan it must have skirted all of the lower bay of New York and at some time within the last few days passed Cony Island and the Rockaways. Pictures show a crowded bathing beach near New York and a man eating shark.
